

Gerund & Infinitive & Participle

A. Gerund with certain constructions: Fill in the blanks with the verbs given

speaking	following	getting married	meeting	eating traveling	smoking	having seen	increasing

1. The Prime minister said he was looking forward to _____ the US President.
2. He should be accustomed by now to _____ English food.
3. The policeman could swear to _____ the accused man at the scene of the crime.
4. Do you think your father would object to our _____ ?
5. He said he wasn't used to _____ in public.
6. I will try to limit myself to _____ ten cigarettes a day.
7. We shan't be going. My wife doesn't feel up to _____ so far.
8. Manufacturers were asked to devote all their energies to _____ exports.
9. The committee could see no alternative to _____ the plan in its original form.