

Relative Clauses 2

A)

1. The man whose beard caught on fire when he lit a cigarette poured a glass of water on his face.
2. The dogcatcher caught the dog which (that) bit my neighbor's daughter.
3. The man who (whom/that) I spoke to on the way home gave me a good advice.
4. I have really missed my hometown where I lived a cheerful childhood.
5. The young women who (whom / that) we met at the theater last night are all from Japan.
6. Do you remember the eighties when we were all young and happy?

B)

1. Mr. Ironhead, now the president, is responsible for this decline.
2. In every traditional story of ours, there is a poor boy wanting to marry the rich man's daughter.
3. On my visit to China, I saw people working to death.
4. Little Women, a novel published in 1868, is my favorite book.
5. Excuse me, but there is something I want to talk to you about.